PREFACE

After the death of my parents, the children and grand-children seemed to be drifting apart. In the hope that this tendency might not go too far, my oldest sister and my brother approached me with the idea of having a regular "get together" during the summer months. They looked to me for leadership in doing this. The next step was "Tell us something about the Willauer Family". So I started to gather information. Each year the data grew. I soon found I had bothered so many people for information, I felt constrained to complete the family history as well as I could, put it into book form and share the results with all who might be interested.

I want to acknowledge and express my deep gratification to all who supplied me with information. Without their assistance this task could not have been pursued.

A great effort has been made to have it accurate and as complete as possible. I trust that, nevertheless, not too many errors have crept, unnoticed, into the book. As no history of the Willauer family was ever prepared or published before, so far as I could ascertain, it was a difficult task to get full information, particularly concerning the earlier generations. I know it is incomplete in many respects, but it is my hope that in the years to come I may be able to add to the data so far gathered.

CHRISTIAN WILLAUER—1706-1771

The earliest record of the name of Christian Willauer is the church record of the baptism, on January 1, 1734 of his son John Adam, at the New Goshenhoppen Church, by the Rev. John Peter Miller. The sponsors at this baptism were John Adam Beuscher and wife.

Next we find his name mentioned in connection with the taking up of some land, by virtue of a warrant, as follows:

PENNSYLVANIA S. S.:

By the Proprietaries.

At the request of Christian Willauer of the County of Bucks that we would grant him to take up one hundred and fifty acres of land between New Goweschoppin and the Great Swamp adjoining to Peter Teeter, in said County of Bucks, for which he agrees to pay to our use at the rate of £ 15 10s current money of this Province for 100A and the yearly Quit-rent of Half-penny Sterling for every acre thereof:

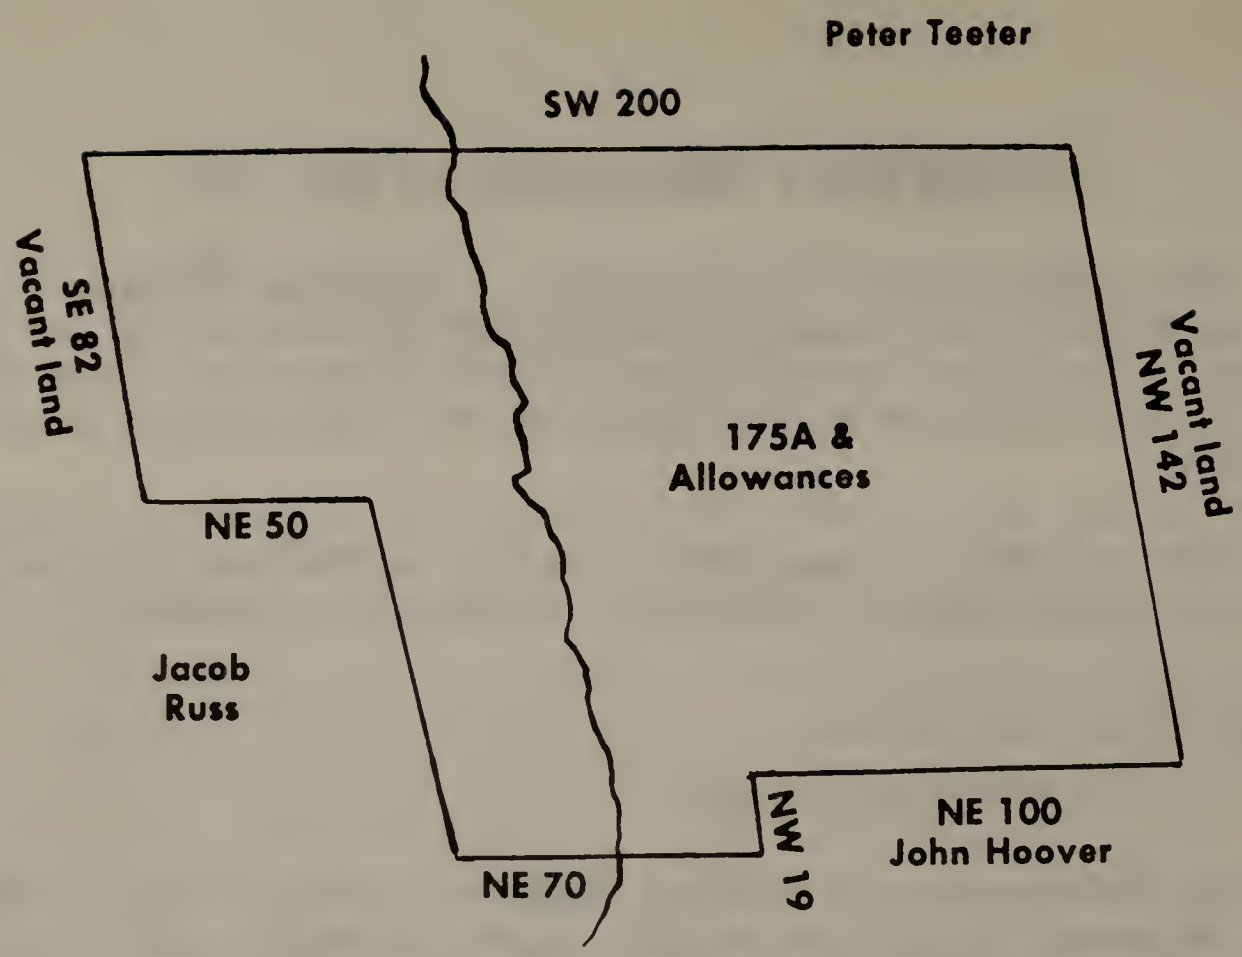
These are to authorize and require the survey or cause to be surveyed unto the said Christian Willour, at the Place aforesaid, according to the method of Townships appointed, the said quantity of 150 Acres that not been already surveyed, or appropriated, and make Return thereof into the Secretary's Office, in order for a further confirmation, for which this shall be thy sufficient Warrant; which Survey, in case the said Christian Willauer fulfill the above Agreement within six months from the date hereof, shall be valid, otherwise to be void.

Given under my hand and the lesser Seal of our Province at Philadelphia, this 22nd day of February, Anno Dom. 1734. To Benjamin Eastburn, Surveyor General.

Thos. Penn.

By virtue of a warrant from the Proprietaries dated the 22d of February, 1734, there was surveyed to Christian Willauer a Tract of land, situate on a Branch of Perkiomy in the County of Bucks, containing 150 acres, with the usual allowance of 6%. Surveyed April 21, 1735.—Book D Vol. 3, p. 250 of Surveys.

This Tract was added to in 1740, and there was surveyed to him the following Tract, situate in Milford Township, Bucks County:



In this way Christian Willauer became a settler in what is now the northwestern part of Bucks County, among the German colonists of that region.

I have found no record of the marriage of Christian Willauer, but it is quite likely that it occurred in this country. His wife's name was Eva Catrina, but what her family name was, I have not learned.

WHEN DID CHRISTIAN WILLAUER ARRIVE?

Insufficient data is available definitely to establish his arrival in this country. Rupp, in his "Thirty Thousand Names", lists "Casper Willauer" as arriving in Philadelphia on the Ship Pink John and William, on October 17, 1732. By some it has been assumed that this Casper is the same person as the Christian who settled in Milford Township, in the parish of the Great Swamp Reformed church in 1734.

I have repeatedly run into the tradition that there were three brothers, who settled in different counties of southeastern Pennsylvania, the counties mentioned being Bucks, Montgomery and Chester. The information furnished has always been meager and sometimes nebulous. It is a known fact that the English clerks who recorded the names of the German immigrants were not too careful to have them correct. Furthermore the German names were unfamiliar, and probably too often were recorded the way they sounded without much effort to be correct.

If there were three immigrant brothers, we would expect them to come at the same time. This was not the case. I submit, however, the following as the immigrant progenitors of the Willauer families in America, subject to the discovery of additional information to prove or disprove this tradition.

On September 30, 1727, the ship "Molloy" John Hodgeson, Master, from Rotterdam, arrived in Philadelphia, bringing 70 Palatines who with their families numbered about 300 persons. Among them was CHRISTIAN WILLAND. Strassburger in his book "Pennsylvania German Pioneers", lists him as "Christian Velte". I submit this as the name for Christian Willauer. Where he lived from 1727 to 1734 is not known. But in February 1734 he settled on a tract of land in Milford Township, Bucks County. He is the father of a long line of descendents.

On the assumption that Christian Willauer arrived in 1727 together with the fact that his first child, of whose baptism we have any record, was baptized at the New Goshenhoppen Reformed Church on January 1, 1734, and that the warrant for the taking up of land in northwestern Bucks County is dated February 22d, 1734, it seems quite likely that Christian Willauer arrived as a single person at the age of 21 and was married later in this country.

On October 17, 1732, the ship "Pink John and William", Constable Tymperton, Master, from Rotterdam, arrived in Philadelphia, with about 170 men, women and children aboard, among them was CASPER WILLAUER. The Casper Willauer in Rupp's list is the same as the Casperrias Vielard, in Strassburger's "Pennsylvania German Pioneers". Among the women was the name of Magdalena Vielard, presumably his wife. The signature to the Oath of Allegiance purporting to be that of Casper Willauer appears as "C. Wilgar". He could sign his name. I have found no further trace of Casper. It seems improbable that both Casper and Magdalena changed their names to Christian and Eva Catrina.

Solomon K. Grimley, a Notary Public of Schwenksville, wrote under date of January 21, 1884, that Casper Willauer arrived with wife and child, and that he settled in the Great Swamp Church district. Apparently he assumed that Casper and Christian was one and the same person. The ship's records do not indicate there was any child.

The ship "Friendship", John Mason, Captain, from Rotterdam, arrived in Philadelphia, and the list of passengers, who qualified November 2, 1744, contained among others the name of PETER VILLIAR. I submit this name as that of Peter Willauer, the last of the three brothers, if indeed there were three brothers. I have found no further record of Casper or Peter.

THE VOYAGE OF THE "PINK JOHN AND WILLIAM"

The ship, on which Casper came, had a most distressing voyage. It sailed from Rotterdam, thence to Dover, England, arriving after seventeen weeks from Rotterdam, at Philadelphia, on Sunday, October 17, 1732. 220 Palatines embarked at Rotterdam. 44 of them died during the voyage. There was considerable dissatisfaction aboard about the length of the voyage, and after about fourteen weeks at sea, the passengers mutinied, seized control of the vessel, and gave orders to the Captain and sailors, under threat of death in case of disobedience. After sighting land they carried the ship twice back and forth between the Delaware capes and Virginia, looking for a place to go ashore, but not knowing where. At length they compelled the sailors to cast anchor near Cape May and to lower a boat; then eight of them seized it and went ashore. From there they traveled for five days overland to Philadelphia, where they found the ship had arrived. Those concerned in taking the boat were committed to prison.

OTHER PASSENGERS

Among the other passengers on this ship were a number of Mennonites—four Brackbill brothers, Jacob Brackbill, Hans Peter Brackbill, Benedict Brackbill, Hans Brackbill. Jacob was listed as sick. Also Jacob and Michael Probst.

Also on this ship was Henry Keck and his wife. He had in some way been connected with the staff of Frederick William, King of Prussia 1713-1740, father of Frederick the Great. Henry Keck was from Bavaria and is the ancestor of a large Lehigh County family. He settled at Big Springs, near Allentown.

Sebastian Truckenmiller (1715-1795) also arrived on this ship. He is buried in Lehigh County, on a farm which he owned. Some of his descendents have settled in Northumberland County. Some members of this family, near Trappe, have shortened the name to T. Miller.

THE NAME WILLAUER

Like other German names, the name Willauer was spelled many different ways in the early colonial records, such as Wilaur, Willawer, Willaver, Wilhaur, Willaurer, Wilhauer, Willower, Willour, Willader, etc.

It has been reported to me that there was a lawsuit in Norristown in the early 1800s, in which it was determined that the correct way to spell this family name is "Willauer". I do not know the title of this lawsuit nor have I verified the statement there was such a lawsuit. However, the conclusion that the correct way to spell this family name is Willauer seems obvious. Nearly all members of the family spell it that way. There are, however, some who spell it Willouer. My father, being left an orphan at six raised by a neighborhood family, not directly related to the Willauer line, was taught to spell his name, when he grew up, Willouer, and his children followed in his footsteps. I have found the name on tombstones on several occasions spelled "Willouer".

The derivation of the name is a place name. "Willau" is a German name meaning "a pleasant valley", the "au" now an obsolete German word meaning valley. The man from that valley was called a Willauer.

Among some there is also the tradition that the family name originally was Villard, Vielard, or Velte, French in origin, and that the original immigrants came from Alsace and were of French origin.

THE FIRST GENERATION

Christian Willauer, who settled in the northwestern corner of Bucks County, on a branch of the Perkiomen, was an active member in the Great Swamp Reformed church, situated near what is now Spinnerstown. I believe he was one of the founders of this church, and certainly was one of the elders in the year 1740. The other elders serving with him were Felix Brunner, Michael Eberhardt, and Jacob Wetzel. It is believed that the Everhardts, immigrants Joseph, Peter, and Michael, who came in 1727, were descendents of the noble family of Eberhardts who founded and ruled the Dutchy of Wirtemburg in the 13th and 14th Century.

Christian's wife was Eva Catrina. What her family name was and where they were married, I do not know. The earliest record of any child is the baptism on January 1, 1734, at the New Goshenhoppen Church by the Rev. John Peter Miller, of their son John Adam. I am assuming he was their oldest son. He was not the first child married. They had four sons and five daughters, but I have no record of dates of birth. Such records of baptism which I could find, other than that of John Adam, are at the Great Swamp Reformed Church. Christian must have been quite active in the affairs of the church. He subscribed 10s in 1748 toward the purchase of church land, and acted in 1761 as a deputy to collect subscriptions for the purchase of church land.

Christian died about June 20, 1771. Presumably he was buried in the Great Swamp Reformed cemetery, but there is no grave stone to mark his last resting place. His will is on file in Philadelphia. It is dated January 23, 1771, and is signed by an "X", indicating that he could not write or was incapacitated by illness, and unable to sign. The will is written in English. It is not known whether he could read or understand English, but the will reads as follows:

"IN THE NAME OF GOD, AMEN! I, Christian Willhauer, of the Township of Low. Milford, and County of Bucks and Province of Pennsylvania, yeoman, being weak of body, but of sound mind and memory, Blessed be God for the same! do this twenty-third day of January, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-one, make and publish this my last Will and Testament in manner and form as follows:

"First, it is my will that all my just (Jest) debts and funeral expenses be fully payed and satisfied.

"Secondly, it is my will that my wife shall have one hundred pounds out of my real (rale) estate of the first payment for my real (rale) estate from my son Adam Willhour payable to me on bond in part of her dower and her right (wright) in said 30 acres of land reserved by a certain article of agreement bearing even date with these presents and made between my son Adam Willhauar and me for my real (rale) estate during her natural life but my wife is only to receive a half of the . . . . payable from my son to me after my death, and the pasturage (pastorage) of one cow; all the other articles and agreements is to be performed to my wife after my decease during her life whether (wheather) my widow or not.

And it is my further will that may wife shall have her bedstead (bedsted) bed and bedding and all her apparel (apperill) and the cupboard (cubart) in the stove room and all the lining and waling yarn and the hemp unbroken and all the flax and two pots and pewter (puter) dishes and Pewter (puter) plates and knives and forks and spoons and all the meat (meate) and five bushels of wheat (whiate) and it is my will that my wife shall have her right of dower in the dwelling house where George Mack and my daughter now lives.

"And it is my further will that my wife shall have one frying pan and one chest; likewise one barrel (barel) of cider (sidar) now in my cellar (selar).

And I do make constitute and ordain my loving wife Katherinah and my son-in-law Stofel Ridanauar to be sole executors of this my last will and testament. In witness whereof I have set my hand and seal the day and year above said.

Mark
his

"Sealed, signed and delivered by the testator as and for his last will and testament in the presence of us who were present at the signing and sealing thereof:

Jacob Huber
Valentine Huber
John Jemison"

Reference is made in the will to his son Adam (John Adam) with whom he had an agreement for the purchase of his real estate (plantation), to his daughter Elizabeth to whom certain special bequests were made, and to a daughter who married George

Mack. The executors of his will were his widow, Katherine, and his son-in-law, Stofel Reitenaur.

The inventory of his estate, made July 25, 1771, totaled £708 Is 7½d. The acounts filed show advances on sale of £13 17s 1d., making the whole personal estate amount to £721 18s 8½d.

From the church records of baptisms, confirmations and marriages, the names of the nine children of this first family seem to be as listed in the following genealogical record:

CHRISTIAN WILLAUER, b. Jan. 20, 1706; d. about June 20, 1771; aged: 64y. 5m.

Married Eva Catrina . . . . ., b. about Nov. 10, 1710; d. Feb. 10, 1779; aged: 68y. 3m.

Children (9): (The following is a mere guess of their probable order of birth.)

1 Anna Maria Willauer, b. . . .; married Stofel (Christoph) Reitenauer, on May 10, 1757.

2 John Adam Willauer, b. . . . 1733(?); baptized Jan. 1, 1734, at New Goshenhoppen Reformed Church, by Rev. John Peter Miller; sponsors: Johan Adam Beuscher and wife. Married Anna Maria Linn on April 18, 1758.

3 Abraham Willauer, b. . . . 1736; baptized April 24, 1736, by John Henry Goetchey, at Great Swamp Reformed Church; sponsor: Abraham Penny (or was it Abraham King, or Abraham Koenig?). No further record.

4 Eva Margareth Willauer, b. . . .; baptized April 11, 1737, by Rev. John Henry Goetschy; sponsors: Margaretha and Michael Eberhardt. Married Thomas Gann (or Gans).

5 Johann Willauer, b. . . .; married Elizabeth Wannenmacher. (?)

6 Christian Willauer, b. . . .; married Sara Schaefer.

7 Elizabeth Willauer, b. . . .; married George Scholl.

8 Barbara Willauer, b. . . .; married George Mack.

9 Catherine Willauer, b. . . .; (The name Catherine is here suggested by the fact that Catherine Willauer acted as sponsor at the baptism of Maria Gann, daughter of Thomas and Margaretha Gann, on June 15, 1762, and at the baptism of Maria Eva Mack, on October 17, 1777, daughter of George Mack and Barbara. I have found no record of her marriage, but it may have been Miller.)

SECOND GENERATION

ANNA MARIA WILLAUER is probably the oldest daughter of Christian and Eva Catrina Willauer. I do not have the date of her birth; her death occurred about 1823. She was confirmed at the Great Swamp Reformed Church between 1748 and 1758. She was married on May 10, 1757 to Stofel (Christopher) Reitenauer, a Lutheran, (also spelled Reitnauer, Ridenauer and Reitenauer), son of Hannes Ridenauer of Aligerberg. Their marriage had been proclaimed on four Sundays preceding the wedding, once in the New Goshenhoppen Church and three times in the Old Goshenhoppen Church. The wedding was celebrated in her father's barn. It would seem to be a reasonable guess that Anna Maria was the oldest daughter and the oldest or second oldest child. Stofel was one of the Executors of the will of Christian Willauer, his wife's father. They were members of the Great Swamp Reformed congregation. According to the baptismal records of the church and his will, on file at the Court House at Doylestown, Bucks County, they had seven sons and five daughters, as follows:

SONS:

1. Christian Reitenauer, b. April 4, 1758; sponsors: Christian Willauer and Catherine, his wife. (Records of Oley Hill Lutheran church, Berks Co.) The sponsors were apparently the grandparents. Christian, the brother to Anna Maria, would have been in his early teens.

   In the father's will, dated October 6, 1796, there is the following reference to Christian, the oldest son:

   "As relating my oldest son Christian it is supposed that he died in a battle with the Indians some time ago, but should it not be true and him return again; then is it my will that he shall only get some clothing of my estate at my executor's discretion".

   He must have returned, because the surviving executor in a second settlement field three years after the widow's decease, lists the following item:

   "Amount of money expended for a suit of clothe for Christian Reitenauer as directed by Will—$21.40".
2. Christopher Reitenauer, born . . .; Married . . .
3. John Reitenauer, b. June 15, 1769 (or 1770); sponsors: Johannes Klein and Wife; Married . . .
4. Henry Reitenauer, b. . . .; Church records: "Johannes Henricus Reitenauer, son of Stoffel Reitenauer, b. October 9, 1770; sponsor: the father himself." Married . . .
5. Samuel Reitenauer, born . . ., Married . . .
6 John Adam Reitenauer, b. . . .; bp. April 13, 1777; sponsors: Adam Willauer and Wife.
7. George Reitenauer, born . . .; Married . . .

DAUGHTERS:

1. Catharine Reitenauer, born . . . Married Peter Huber. (Was a widow in 1796, at the time the father's will was written.)
2. Anna Maria Reitenauer, born . . . 1776; Married Conrad Eberhardt.

3. Eva Reitenauer, born Nov. 9, 1772; married John Eberhardt.
4. Elizabeth Reitenauer, born . . .; Married . . .
5. Susanna Reitenauer, b. Aug. 9, 1780; bp. March 18, 1781; sponsors: Christian Sneider and wife Susanna.

The will of Christopher Reitenauer is on file in the Bucks County Court House, at Doylestown. It is dated October 6, 1796, and it was probated May 27, 1797. The widow Ann Mary Reitenauer and a son John Reitenauer were named as executors. He refers to his plantation of 200 acres in Lower Milford Township, which was to be managed by his widow so long as she remained his widow. The witnesses to the will were Adam Schneider, Jr. and Christian Willauer.

As an item of interest, I quote from David Schulz' Dairy under date of March 31, 1780, in which he refers to Christopher Reitenauer, as follows: "Reitenauer brought news of a great Revolution in Ireland on the 28th—Not true. Also of an insurrection among the Irish troops in New York—ditto."

———o———

JOHN ADAM WILLAUER, b. probably late in 1733; d. May or June 1788; son of Christian and Eva Catrina Willauer. Married Anna Maria Linn, on April 18, 1758, at the Goshenhoppen Reformed Church, by Rev. George Michael Weiss. She was born (one report says 1738; another says April 12, 1740); d. February 13, 1826; daughter of Peter and Anna Margaretha (Brunner) Linn. She was married a second time to Peter Herlacher.

Anna Maria's mother was Anna Margaretha, a daughter of Felix and Anna Barbara Brunner. Felix Brunner was an Elder at the Great Cwamp Reformed Church, together with Christian Willauer, Michael Eberhardt and Jacob Wetzel. Both Felix Brunner and Anna Barbara Brunner died in 1760. Both in their wills, on file in City Hall, Philadelphia, named John Adam Willauer as sole executor. He must have been only about 27 years of age at the time of their deaths. It indicates the high regard in which he, the husband of their grand child, Anna Maria Linn, was held.

They had the following children:

1. Christian Willauer, b. May 27, 1760; confirmed April 13, 1776, at Great Swamp Reformed Church, by Rev. Faber. He became a Doctor. Married Mary Bough (Bach family).
2. Peter Willauer, b. December 11, 1764; confirmed at Old Goshenhoppen Church on April 21, 1781, at age 16; married Rebecca Gery.
3. John Willauer, b. . . . 1767; confirmed June 12, 1784, at age 17, by Rev. Van der Sloot. Married . . .
4. Anthony Willauer, b. December 18, 1770; confirmed 1787, at age 16, at Great Swamp Church. Married Eva . . .
5. Eva Jacobina Willauer, b. late 1773; bp. Jan. 13, 1774; by Rev. John Theobald Faber, at Great Swamp Reformed Church; sponsors: Felix Linn and Wife; confirmed at Pentecost, 1790. Married . . .
6. Maria Elizabeth Willauer, b. . . . 1777; bp. April 25, 1777; sponsors: John Linn and Wife; confirmed in 1792, at age 15. Married Adam Schneider.

7. Magdalena Willauer, b. . . . 1780; confirmed at Easter, 1795, at age 15. Married Peter Heilig.

John Adam Willauer is presumably the oldest son of Christian. We do not know the date of his birth, only that he was baptized on January 1, 1734. He is generally referred to in the church records as Adam Willauer. His estate is recorded and settled as that of Adam Willauer.

Jean Glasser Maurer, in the D. A. R. Lineage Book, claims lineage from this family on the following data:

(1) John Willauer m. 1758 Anna Maria Linn;
(2) Peter Willauer m. 1787 Rebecca Geri (Gery);
(3) John Willauer (1792-1880) m. Barbara Longaker (1794-1857);
(4) Eleanore Willauer (1816-1898) m. William Berrett.

John Willauer (1737-1797) served as private in the 4th battalion, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania Regiment of foot under Capt. Phillip Hahn. He was born and died in New Hanover Twp., Pa. Peter Willauer (1759-1827) served as private in the Pennsylvania militia under Capt. Martin Weaver.

My data would indicate that Christian Willauer had one son John Adam Willauer, born 1733 or earlier, died 1788, and a younger son John Willauer, who might well have been born in 1737.

John Adam Willauer, usually referred to as Adam Willauer, married Anna Maria Linn on April 18, 1758. In 1771 he took over his father's farm in Lower Milford Twp. and it is safe to assume that he lived on this farm until his death in 1788. His name appears in the roster of the Lower Milford Militia during the Revolution.

The John Willauer (1737-1797) in the D. A. R. Lineage Book is reported to have been born and to have died in New Hanover township. I believe this refers to a younger brother of John Adam, who may have lived in New Hanover township and served in the 4th battalion, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania Regiment of foot under Capt. Phillip Hahn.

I am indebted for the following bit of information to notes on "The Willauer Family" by George F. P. Wanger:

"It appears that Christian Willauer never received a Patent for his real estate. He conveyed his rights to his son Adam, who received a Patent from the Supreme Executive Council May 27, 1788, for 180 acres, which included the land taken up by his father by the two warrants of 1734 and 1743.

"Adam Willauer died intestate and letters of administration were granted June 21, 1788, to his widow Mary Willauer and son Dr. Christian Willauer. Sureties, David Spinner and John Kline. The inventory of his personal estate was made June 18, 1788, amounting to £214, 9s, 5d.

"At the Orphans Court of Bucks County, September 14, 1789, Christian Willauer, eldest son of Adam, petitioned for an inquest to make partition of 180 acres of land in Lower Milford Twp. and setting forth that Adam Willauer left seven children:—Christian, Peter, John, Anthony, Eve, Elizabeth, and Magdalena. Eve was over 14 years of age and petitioned for a guardian June 1790, and David Spinner was appointed. At the same Court, Christian Willauer petitioned for guardian for Elizabeth and Magdalena under 14 years of age and Abraham Shelly was appointed.

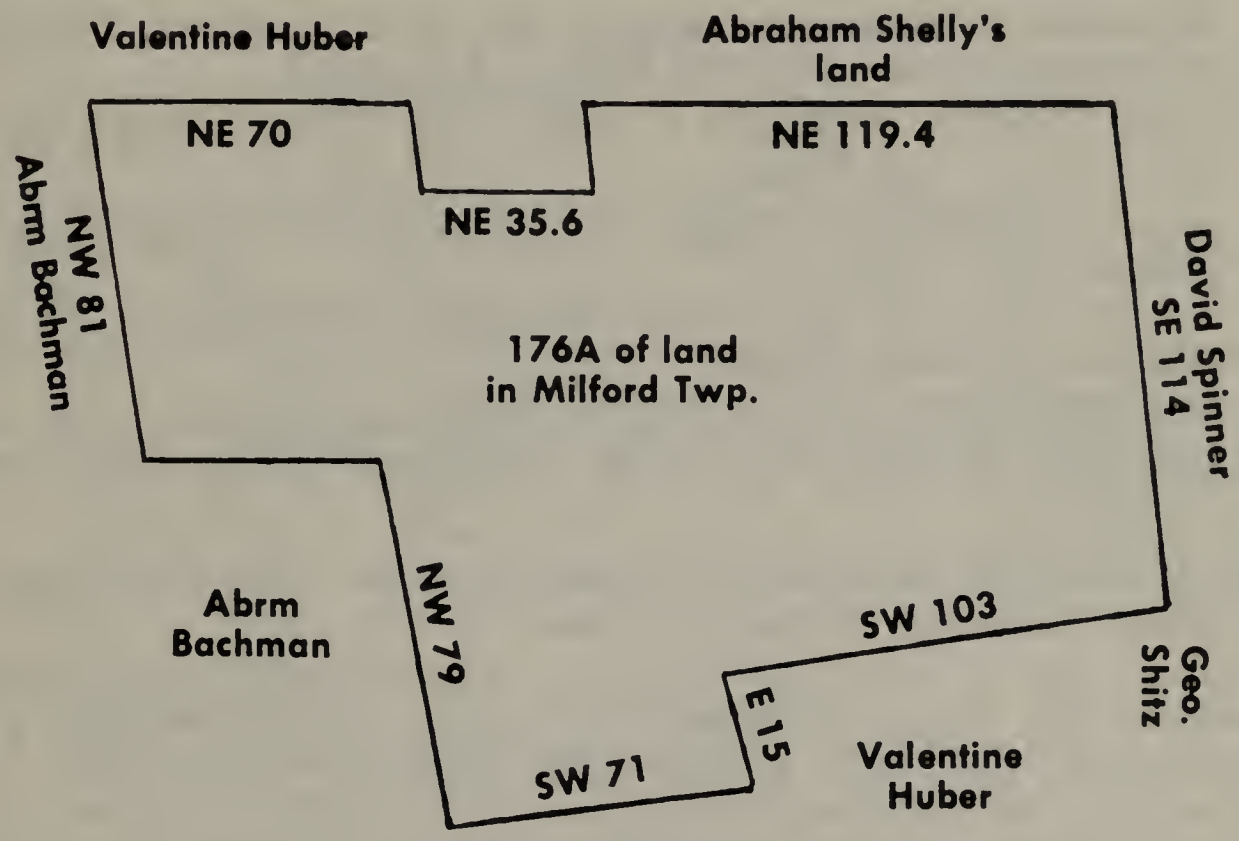
"The return of the inquest shows that there was but 176 acres of land, 4 acres having been sold off. The tract was awarded to Dr. Christian Willauer, he giving bonds to his six brothers and sisters.

"None of these bonds is satisfied on the record except the one given to Peter Willauer, which was satisfied February 13, 1830, by John Willauer, Executor of Peter, deceased."

The copy, below, of surveyor's draft, by David Schulz, of the land of J. Adam Willauer, on file at Doylestown, is interesting, chiefly because it shows who his neighbors were.



The land was appraised at £577 12s
The widow's dower was £13—10-9 per annum

———o———

JOHANNES WILLAUER (1737-1797), son of Christian and Eva Catrina Willauer.

Married Elizabeth Wannenmacher, b. . . . 1739, d. . . ., daughter of Conrad and Mary Barbara Wannenmacher.

I have no positive information that Johannes Willauer married Elizabeth Wannenmacher, but I am basing my statement on the following facts:

(1) Of the four children of Johannes Willauer (see below) who were baptized at the Great Swamp Reformed Church by the Rev. Faber, in two instances members of the Wannenmacher family were witnesses, and I believe they were brothers to the mother, and in the other two instances members of the Willauer family, sisters to him, were witnesses.

(2) There is also the record of the baptism on March 2, 1783, at the Falkner Swamp Reformed Church, of Peter Willauer, son of John and Elizabeth, born June 21, 1782.

(3) The Will of Conrad Wannemacher, of New Hanover, is on file at City Hall, in Philadelphia, probated May 4, 1772. In it he names his wife Mary Barbara, his son Christian, who was to receive his plantation in New Hanover, and two daughters, Helen Elizabeth and Elizabeth Barbara. Jacob, another son, died before his father. These facts seems to tie in with the supposition that Johanes Willauer married Elizabeth Wannenmacher, and that her two brothers, Christian and Jacob with his wife were sponsors at the baptisms of Johannes and Johan Jacobus.

Children:

1. Elizabeth Willauer, b. September 12, 1768; witnesses: Heinrich Maurer and Elizabeth Willauer. Confirmed April 12, 1788, Age 20. Married . . .
2. Johannes Willauer, b. August 30, 1771; witness, Christian Wannenmacher. Married Cathar Livegood.
3. Johan George Willauer, b. March 25, 1773; witness, Stofel Reitenauer and Wife.
4. Johan Jacobus, b. October 26, 1775; witness Jacob Wannenmacher and Wife.
   All the above were baptized at the Great Swamp Reformed Church by Rev. Faber.
5. Peter Willauer, son of John and Elizabeth Willauer, b. June 21, 1782; bp. March 2, 1783, at Falkner Swamp Reformed Church.

In a report of taxables of New Hanover for 1779 there is listed "John Willauer, Laborer, 1 cow."

Also listed in the New Hanover Militia in Captain Hahn's company is one "John Willauer". It is my belief, although I am without proof, that this is the John Willauer (1737-1797) who served as private in the 4th battalion, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania Regiment of foot under Capt. Phillip Hahn, and who lived and died in New Hanover Township, and who was erroneously mentioned in the D. A. R. Lineage book as having married Anna Maria Linn. (see account under J. Adam Willauer) John Adam Willauer lived in Lower Milford Township and was a member of Lower Milford Militia.

EVA MARGARETH WILLAUER (CRETH) was baptized on April 11, 1737, by Rev. Henry Goetsche, at the Great Swamp Reformed Church. I have found no record of dates of birth or of death. She was a catechuman at the Great Swamp Church between 1748 and 1758. She married Thomas Gann (also spelled Gant, Gan and Cann) probably early in 1755.

Thomas Gann died intestate in the spring of 1789. He was a resident of Richland Township, Bucks County. The widow Margaret Gann and Sebastian Horn were appointed administrators on May 19, 1789. Margaret could not sign her name, but made her mark. The estate amounted to about 154 pounds, which was distributed mainly to the widow, to Christian Gann, and to Sebastian Horne and Catherine, his wife. It is probable that Catherine was a daughter and that Christian Gann was a son.

The church records and estate settlement would indicate the following children:

1. John Adam Gann, b. Oct. 4, 1755; bp. Nov. 9, 1755; sponsors, John Adam Willauer and Elizabeth Bitting, both single.
2. Christian Gann, b. . . .; married.
3. Catherine Gann, b. . . .; married Sebastian Horne.
4. Maria Eva Gann, b. . . .; bp. May 11, 1760, by Rev. Geo. Michael Weiss, at Goshenhoppen; sponsors, J. Adam Willauer and wife Anna Maria.
5. Maria Gann, daughter of Thomas and Margaretha Gann, b. May 18, 1762, bp. June 15, 1762; sponsors: Catherine Willauer.

CHRISTIAN WILLAUER, b. . . .; d. . . . 1792; son of Christian and Eva Catrina Willauer.

Married Sara Schaefer, b. . . .; d. . . . dau. of . . .

According to church records, they appear to have had eight children, 3 males and 5 females:

1. Anna Catherine Willauer, dau. of Christian Willauer, bp. Nov. 1, 1767, at Great Swamp Reformed Church by Rev. John Theobald Faber; witnesses: Christian Willauer and Wife. (In the records of the Great Swamp Reformed Church listing this baptism, the name of the father is given as Christopher and the sponsors as Christopher Willauer and wife. This appears to be an error in recording or in translation). Married . . .
2. Adam Willauer, son of Christian, bp. Jan. 15, 1769; Witnesses: Adam Willauer and Wife. (This was no doubt John Adam Willauer and his Wife Anna Maria, John Adam being a brother to Christian and the child named after him. Married Elizabeth Knecht, of Drylands, on Jan. 9, 1794.
3. Christian Willauer, (There is buried in the Reformed Cemetery at Old Zionville one Christian Willauer, b. March 1, 1771; d. May 11, 1842; aged: 71y. 2m. 10d. There is buried beside him his wife Elizabeth Willauer, b. Mar. 1, 1781; d. Jan. 8, 1840; Aged: 58y. 9m. 28d.)
4. Andrew Willauer, b. May 19, 1773; mar. Marillis Elizabeth Boch.
5. Catherena Willauer, b. Dec. 21, 1776; mar. . . .
6. Susanna Willauer, b. Aug. 15, 1779; d. Sept. 1, 1866. Married . . . (There is buried in Forks Church Cemetery a Susanna Willauer, with the following verse on her tombstone:

   "Sweet is the sleep our mother takes,
   Till in Christ Jesus she awakes,
   Then will her happy soul rejoice
   To hear her blessed Saviour's Voice."

   Perhaps this does not apply here, but to a Susanna, wife of a Willauer.)
7. Sara Willauer, b. Sept. 21, 1784; mar. George Knecht, on Jan. 15, 1803.

8. Eva Elizabeth Willauer, b. . . . mar. Ulric Knecht. From the records of baptisms at the First Reformed Church, Easton, we have the following: "Anna Maria Levan, b. Jan. . . . 1800, bp. Feb. 4, 1800. Parent: Susanna Willauer. Ulric Knecht and his wife Eva Elizabeth have assumed responsibility for the Christian nurture of this child."

Inventory of Christian Willauer's estate was filed at the office of the Recorder of Wills, in Easton, on December 24, 1792, by Sara, his widow, as administratrix of the estate. A bond for 300 pounds was signed by the widow, Sara, by Jacob Schaefer, of Forks Township, a blacksmith, and by Christian Willauer, of Lower Milford Township, a physician.

———o———

ELIZABETH WILLAUER. Information on Elizabeth, a daughter of immigrant Christian and Eva Catrina Willauer, is meager. We have no record of her birth, although it was probably in the early 1740's. It is reasonable to assume she was born in Milford Township, in the parish of the Great Swamp Reformed Church, of which her father was an elder. A careful search of the baptismal records fail to show when she was baptized.

In Christian's will she is bequeathed out of his personal estate two cows, and one bed, — bedding and bedstead, over and above her equal share with the others and is the only one so favored. This would indicate that she was an unmarried daughter and was living at home with her parents.

From the genealogical history of the Scholl family, we learn that Elizabeth Willauer became the second wife of John George Scholl, usually referred to as George Scholl, shortly after 1797. He was born on March 9th, 1749, in Lower Saucon. His first wife was Anna Maria Dedderer (Dötterer), whom he married on October 21, 1773. From his first wife he had nine children, two of whom became ministers. Their last child was born May 17, 1797, and the mother died November 21, 1797.

We find that on January 23, 1798, George Scholl bought 283 acres of land in Milford Township, Bucks County, Penna., from Dr. Christian Willauer, executor of his father's (John Adam Willauer's) estate. George Scholl was of Franconia Township, Montgomery County, as of this date. This property in Milford Township included the original homestead of the immigrant family, Christian and Eva Catrina Willauer which was passed on to his son John Adam Willauer. Dr. Christian Willauer evidently had added to the acreage as the immigrant Christian had only about 175 acres. It must have been about this time or soon thereafter that George Scholl married Elizabeth Willauer, and moved to the Willauer farm, where he found his new wife Elizabeth.

The records show that George Scholl was a resident of Milford Township, Bucks County, on April 4, 1799, when he acted as executor of the estate of Martin Kindig, Sr., a former neighbor in Franconia Township. A Martin Kindig, presumably this one, came over on the same ship "MOLLOY" as Christian Willauer.

From 1780 to 1785 George Scholl had bought a number of tracts of land in Franconia Township from different persons, until his holdings totaled more than 400 acres. On October 4, 1801, George Scholl and his wife Elizabeth sold off the Franconia farms. Concerning these farms we quote from James T. Heckler's History of Franconia Township, as follows:

"We have but a very limited data of a large tract of land which comprises the Scholl Farms, near Morwood, now (about 1890-1895) included in the farms of Jacob C. Godshall, William Oberholtzer, Nathaniel Willauer, Christian D. Souder, and the greater part of the farm of John Bergey."

This is particularly interesting to me because it included the farm of my father on which I was born, and I recall vivdly the Sunday afternoon, August 11, 1895, when my brother and I and other neighborhood boys sat on the porch of our farmhouse during a terrific thunderstorm and rain of cloudburst character. Lightning struck the barn of Jacob Godshall and burned it to the ground.

In 1786 George Scholl is listed as a "Sadler" in Capt. Cope's company of Militia from Franconia.

In his day George Scholl was looked upon as a wealthy man. He had a large volume of trade in flour, meats, brandy, and the like with the Philadelphia markets, which necessitated the constant hauling of goods to and fro by three teams.

His wife Elizabeth must have died some time before 1811, because George Scholl married his third wife, Susanna Rumfield, from Upper Saucon, before 1811.

George Scholl died in Gwynedd Township, Montgomery County, on July 17, 1824, and is buried at Indian Creek Reformed cemetery, where his first wife also is buried.

I have found no record when his second wife Elizabeth died or where she may be buried, nor have I as yet been able to identify his grave at the Indian Creek Reformed cemetery.

BARBARA WILLAUER, b. . . .; d. . . .; Daughter of Christian and Eva Catrina Willauer.

Married George Mack, b. . . .; d. . . ., son of . . .

Children, according to Great Swamp Reformed Church records:

1. Elizabeth Mack, dau. of George Mack, was baptized by Rev. John Theo Faber, on Feb. 7, 1771; sponsors: Phillip Mumbauer and wife Elizabeth.
2. Catharina Mack, dau. of Geo. Mack, b. March 1, 1771, bp. . . . sponsor: Heinrich Stettler and Wife.
3. Susanna Mack, bp. June 3, 1776, by Rev. John Theo. Faber; Sponsors: George Horner and Wife. d. Oct. 3, 1777; Aged: 1y. 4m.
4. M. Elisabeth Mack, b. March 28, 1782; bp. May 12, 1782; dau. of George Mack and wife Barbara. Sponsors: Jacob Kohler and Wife Elizabeth.
5. Peter Mack, b. March 5, 1784, bp. July 11, 1784; son of George Mack; sponsors: Peter Eberhard and Wife.
6. Maria Dorothea Mack, b. July 10, 1786; bp. Sept. 24, 1786;

dau. of George Mack and wife. Sponsors: Dorothea Baier (probably Dorothea Bauer).

7. Maria Eva Mack, b. . . . dau. of George Mack; bp. Oct. 3, 1777, by Rev. J. H. Goetschius; sponsors: Cathar. Willauer.

Note: It seems to me this Catharine Willauer must have been a sister to Barbara and a daughter of Christian and Eva Catrina Willauer. She must have been a single woman at the time of Christian's death in 1771. Or could it be Anna Catharine Willauer, daughter of Christian and Sara. There was also a Catharine Willauer, daughter of Johannes Willauer, who was 9 years of age at this time.

These children were baptized in the Great Swamp Reformed Church. I have found records of other George Macks, who lived about this time and in the same general region, but were apparently members of the Goshenhoppen congregtion. I have found no gravestone for George Mack and his wife Barbara at the Great Swamp Reformed Church.

DR. CHRISTIAN WILLAUER[3], (John Adam[2], Christian[1]) b. May 27, 1760; d. March 20, 1817; Aged: 56y. 9m. 23d; son of John Adam and Anna Maria (Linn) Willauer.

Married Mary Baugh (Bach family, see note), b. 1778; d. . . . daughter of John and Catherine (Crumpacher) Bach. (See Bulletin of Historical Society of Montgomery Co. Vol. VIII, No. 4, p. 319-20).

Note: The Baugh family is of German extraction, the name being originally Bach. The first one known in Chester County being Jacob Baugh, who came to America about the middle of the 18th century. His son John Baugh married Mary Price, to whom were born eleven children, 4 sons and 7 daughters. George Baugh was the eldest son; a daughter, Mary, born about 1778, became the wife of Dr. Christian Willauer.

Mary, after the death of Dr. Christian Willauer, married Jacob Zug, or Zook, as her second husband.

Dr. Christian Willauer, on June 21, 1788, in conjunction with his widowed mother, Anna Maria, received letters of administration in the estate of his father, J. Adam Willauer. Later on, by award of the Orphans Court, he became the owner of the homestead, which J. Adam Willuaer had acquired from his father, Christian Willauer, by giving bonds for the payment of the shares of his brothers and sisters. On October 24, 1788, he acquired two additional tracts, one of 132 acres of land in Milford Township, and another of 30 acres in Northampton County. Michael Eberhard, one of the elders with Christian Willauer of the Great Swamp Reformed Church, in his will dated October 15, 1768, refers to his land as adjoining that of Christian Willauer and next the upper county line, indicating that the Willauer homestead was close to the Northampton county line (now Lehigh county).

Dr. Christian Willauer was involved in other land transactions in upper Montgomery and Bucks counties. On January 23, 1798, Christian Willauer, of Lower Milford township, a Doctor of Physics, conveyed to George Scholl, of Franconia township, Montgomery county, three tracts of land comprising about 283 acres.

We also find that Dr. Christian Willauer bought a lot, No. 10, at the corner of York and High streets, in Pottstown, which he sold again in 1800.

In 1792 he was one of the signers on a bond of Sara Willauer, a widow of Christian Willauer, his uncle, to enable her to qualify as administratrix of her husband's estate.

Dr. Christian was a member of the Great Swamp Reformed Church and lies buried in the cemetery of that church. His tombstone bears the title of Doctor by request in his will. At the time of his death (1817), at the age of 56, he lived in Upper Hanover township. His will is on file in Norristown, Montgomery County. To his wife he left 5 shillings in lieu of dower; to his sister Elizabeth, intermarried with Adam Schneider, he left $100; to his two sons, Samuel and Jonathan, he left his books and the balance of his estate.

1. Samuel Willauer, b. March 31, 1799; m. Hannah Grub.
2. Jonathan Willauer, b. . . .; m. Anna Louisa Vanleer.

Peter was a carpenter by trade. Jacob Gery, father of Rebecca was a redemptioner, who came from Switzerland. He was indentured to Valentine Griesemer, a farmer near Treichlerville, and, like Moses of old, married the daughter of his master.

Both are buried in the New Goshenhoppen Cemetery.

Peter's will is filed in Norristown, Montgomery county, Pa. He left everything to his wife Rebecca. His sons Jacob and John were executors. In his will he names his children as follows: Jacob, John, Polly, Elizabeth and Catherine.

A John Willauer and Margreth Hillegas were sponsors at the baptism of Magdalena, daughter of Peter and Rebecca Willauer, on June 18, 1790, at the Great Swamp Reformed Church. It was no doubt this John, who was 23 years old at this time.

There is a record of the baptism of Anna Maria, (born May 20, 1787), on June 18, 1787, daughter of Hanes Willauer and Barbara, his wife. Witnesses were Heinrich Pfaltzgraff and A. Maria, his wife, at Falkner Swamp Reformed Church.

SAMUEL WILLAUER[4], (Christian[3], John Adam[2], Christian[1]) b. March 31, 1799, in Coventry Township, Chester Co., Pa., d. January 24, 1870; aged: 70y. 9m. 24d.; son of Dr. Christian and Mary (Baugh) Willauer.

Married Hannah Grubb, b. July 16, 1804; d. February 19, 1878; aged: 73y. 7m. 3d., dau. of Conrad and Elizabeth (Baugh) Grubb. Elizabeth Baugh was a daughter of John Baugh and a granddaughter of Jacob Baugh, who was the first Baugh known to settle in Chester county, and who came to America about the middle of the 18th century.

Samuel had received a fair education for his day, and for several years he was engaged in teaching. This was before the days of the public school system.

The records show that by deed dated March 23, 1824, John Urner, of Coventry, yeoman, and wife Elizabeth, conveyed to Samuel Willauer, of Coventry, teacher, for $4,200, a messuage and 85 acres and 10 perches of land in Coventry.

By deed, dated March 3, 1857, Samuel Willauer, of North Coventry, farmer, and wife Hannah, conveyed to Lewis B. Reifsnyder, of Philadelphia, carpenter, for $7,710 a messuage and 75 acres of land, it being the greater part of the purchase from John Urner.

Samuel also showed some political aspirations. In May 1851, he announced his intentions to seek the Democratic nomination for the office of Recorder of Deeds in Chester County. Whether or not he was successful I have not learned.

Samuel died January 24, 1870, and was buried in the Coventry Mennonite Cemetery, near Kennilworth. His widow died February 18, 1878, at the residence of his son, Major Seneca G. Willauer, at West Chester, and was buried beside her husband.

   Samuel was mustered into service on August 11, 1862, and was mortally wounded at the battle of Fredericksburg, Va., on December 13, 1862. The inscription on his tombstone reads: "Corp. Samuel Willauer, Co. C, 116th P. V., Son of Samuel an Hannah Willauer. Wounded in the battle of Fredericksburg, Va., while bravely defending our glorious union. Died at Falmouth Hospital."
6. Louisa Willauer, b. . . .; Married Daniel Beideman (Lived in Reading).

   A notice in the Bauern Freund (Pennsburg) states that Elhanan W. Frick, of East Coventry, was married to Angelina Willauer, of North Coventry, on November 25, 1850, by Rev. Curren. No further information.
   Note: There is also a tombstone with the inscription "A. W. 1824" beside the graves of the parents.

JACOB WILLAUER[4], (Peter[3], John Adam[2], Christian[1]) b. Aug. 31, 1788; d. Oct. 16, 1860; aged: 72y. 1m. 15d.; son of Peter and Rebecca (Gery) Willauer.

Married Mary (or Mary Magdalena) . . . b. Oct. 29, 1788; d. Nov. 3, 1843; aged: 55y. 5d. Daughter of . . .

In December 1812, Jacob Willauer bought 9A 100P of land from the estate of Martin Cleves (or Clever) of which Jacob Gery was one of the executors. Jacob Willauer was a tailor, and, as is indicated in two agreements, written in German script, originals of which are in the Schwenkfelder Library, he took on young men as apprentices to learn the business of tailoring. One such apprentice agreement was with Christopher Schultz as guardian for Jesse Steinman, which is dated March 1, 1820, and the second was with George Huber and is dated April 22, 1823.

On April 11, 1837, Jacob Willauer and his wife Magdalena (who had to make her mark) conveyed this property in Hereford to John Sassaman, a blacksmith. I believe he must thereupon have moved to the vicinity of Schwenksville. They are both buried in Keely's cemetery, Schwenksville, as well as their children. The death of each was reported in the Bauern Freund and Pennsburg Democrat. Her name was recorded as Magdalena, but the tombstone gives her name as Mary. He was reported as of Limerick. The mother died in 1843; a son Edward in 1845; a son Jacob in 1848, three died in 1849; a son Samuel in March, a daughter Catherine in August and a daughter Sophia in September; the remaining daughter Mary died in 1850. The tombstone for Jacob identifies him as a son of Jacob and Magdalena; the others are all marked as son or daughter of Jacob and Mary.

Children:

1. Catherine Willauer, b. May 18, 1815; d. August 13, 1849; aged: 34y. 3m. Married William Croll. No record of any children.
2. Sophia Willauer, b. Feb. 18, 1818; d. Sept. 2, 1849; aged: 31y. 6m. 14d.
3. Mary Willauer, b. May 3, 1820; married John M. Saylor.
4. Edward Willauer, b. Nov. 3, 1821; d. Nov. 21, 1845; aged: 24y. 18d.
5. Jacob Willauer, b. Oct. 4, 1823; d. Feb. 28, 1848; aged 24y. 4m. 24d.
6. Samuel Willauer, b. June 2, 1831; d. Mar. 2, 1849; aged 17y. 8m.

There is also a tombstone in the New Goshenhoppen cemetery for Enoch Willauer, b. Jan. 19, 1828; d. Sept. 19, 1829; aged: 1y. 8m., son of Jacob and Mary. This would appear to be another child of this family.

Married Daniel Hittel, b. October 10, 1788; d. Mar. 22, 1848; aged: 59y. 5m. 12d. son of (Arnin?) and Elizabeth Hittel.

Daniel was a farmer. His farm of 91 acres at the time of his death was situated partly in Upper Hanover township and partly in Douglas township with a branch of the Perkiomen flowing throught it. Daniel died intestate, leaving a widow, nine children and four grandchildren. Daniel and Sophia were still minors, although over 14, and John Willauer, an uncle, was appointed guardian. John Hittel, a son, and John Fox, a son-in-law, were appointed administrators of the estate. They are both buried at Huber's cemetery, Niantic.

Daniel Hittel was among the contributors toward the building of a covered bridge over the Perkiomen on the Kutztown-Philadelphia road.

There is a reference in Scholl Genealogy, p. 649, to one John Hittel, the evangelist, but a connection with the above John Hittel is not indicated.

JOHN WILLAUER[4], (Peter[3], John Adam[2], Christian[1]) b. Aug. 2, 1792; d. June 13, 1880; Aged: 87y. 10m. 11d. son of Peter and Rebecca (Gery) Willauer.

Married Barbara Longacre, on February 28, 1815, b. July 17, 1794, d. Mar. 21, 1857; Aged: 62y. 8m. 4d. dau. of Henry and Elizabeth (Sell) Longacre.

John Willauer was a soldier in the War of 1812, but I do not have any record of the nature of his military service. His marriage to Barbara Longacre took place in 1815, after the War of 1812.

In 1833 he purchased 146 acres of land in Limerick township from the Thomas Pool estate. Parcels of this he sold off to various people at different times; 20 acres to his son Peter, a plasterer, on April 21, 1849; a tract of land (acreage not stated) was sold to Amos Keely on December 18, 1849; 27 acres to Edward Willauer on Jan. 3, 1866; 70 acres to Sara Willauer, wife of Jesse Willauer, on the same date; 4 acres to Jacob Weikel on April 8, 1869.

John died on June 13, 1880, and the SCHWENKSVILLE ITEM for June 18, 1880, carried the following news item concerning his passing:

"JOHN WILLAUER, an old and respected citizen of this community, died at the residence of Sylvanus Peterman, a son-in-law, on last Sunday night, at the advanced age of 88 years. He was then taken to the home of his son Edward Willauer, near this place, where his funeral was held yesterday. Mr. Willauer was one of the oldest citizens of this neighborhood, and was a soldier of the War of 1812."

His will was filed in Norristown on July 12, 1880, which contained the following paragraphs:

"My estate shall be divided among my children share and share alike, except my son Peter, deceased, or his heirs, shall have no share of my estate, but one dollar and no more.

"My daughter Eliza Sholl being sickly and not able to take care of her share, I do order and appoint my son Edward Willauer to secure her share in real estate or as he my see proper, and pay her the interest thereof.

"I appoint my two sons Isaac Willauer and Edward Willauer as Executors."

They are both buried in Keely's Cemetery, Schwenksville. Mary, Paulina, Jesse and Edward and his wife are also buried there.

There were other children who died young; apparently some were buried in New Goshenhoppen cemetery; others in Spinnertown. They may be without gravestones.

GEORGE WILLAUER[4], (Anthony[3], John Adam[2], Christian[1]), b. August 5, 1807; d. Dec. 19, 1835; Aged: 28y. 4m. 14d.; son of Anthony and Eva (. . .) Willauer.

Married Anna Bearpoit, b. . . .; d. . . . dau. of . . .; (The Bauern Freund reports under date of November 6, 1833, the marriage the previous Sunday, of George Willauer and Anna Bearpoit, both of Marborough twp., by the Rev. Geo. Roeller.)

No record of any children. George was murdered in Sumneytown, and is reported to have been buried at the Old Goshenhoppen cemetery, but I have not been able to find his grave. An account of his murder follows:

George Willauer, lived in Sumneytown, and was employed as a teamster for Daniel Jacoby, the owner of a mill in the vicinity of Sumneytown.

About mid-night of December 18, 1835, a group of six young apprentice engineers, employed to survey a rail route through the Perkiomen Valley from Norristown to Allentown, arrived at the hotel, operated by John Hartranft, together with their driver. They at once started a quarrel with the inn-keeper over a difference in their board and lodging of a few days ago. While the driver purchased a drink, the others accused the innkeeper and threatened to strike him. The situation looked so serious to the innkeeper that he sent the servant to a neighbor for help, and at the same time a next door neighbor, by name George Willauer, entered with the good intention to help the innkeeper if necessary. The uninvited ruffians were ready for a fight. They closed the doors and locked themselves in. The neighbor and others tried to prevent this and a hand to hand fight followed. In this fight the innocent neighbor suffered two knife wounds in the lower right side of the abdomen. He immediately reported this to the innkeeper and told him to go for help, as he was wounded.

The innkeeper hurried to the neighbors' houses, woke the owners, crying "murder". But by the time the neighbors appeared, the murderer and his companions had escaped. The poor neighbor boy lay in his own blood, and said "I will die now".

Three doctors were obtained, who worked over him with great care. However, he died at 4.00 P.M. on Saturday, 16 hours after the attack. An inquest was held by a jury and their report stated that George Willauer died of the knife wounds which were inflicted by one of the ruffiians. The doctors agreed with the Jury's findings.

He was reputed to be a useful and orderly young man in the neighborhood. He was survived by a sorrowing young wife, a brother, and many friends in the neighborhood. His parents lived in Chestnut Hill Township, Northampton County.

I am indebted to Edwin B. Benner, Sumneytown, Pa., for the above account as it was related in the "Bauern Freund", a newspaper published in Sumneytown at that time.

The engineers, referred to by the Bauern Freund as the ruffians, some of them sons of wealthy and influential families in Philadelphia, were arrested and brought to trial in Norristown on February 20, 1836, for the murder of George Willauer.

Twenty state witnesses and three defense witnesses were heard, whereupon the prosecuting attorney stopped the witnesses to the great surprise of the public.

The jury after being out only one minute brought in a verdict of "not guilty" to the great surprise of the public and to the utter consternation of the neighbors.

JESSE WILLAUER [4], (Anthony[3], John Adam[2], Christian[1]) b. May 14, 1809; d. Feb. 3, 1890; Aged: 80y. 8m. 20d.; son of Anthony and Eva (. . .) Willauer.

Married (1) Sarah Heist, on May 15, 1835, at Tohickon, by Rev. John A. Strassburger, b. Feb. 6, 1819; d. Jan. 15, 1865; Aged: 45y. 11m. 9d., dau. of . . .

(2) Mrs. Lydia van Schultz, of Kutztown, on July 11, 1867; b. . . .; d. . . .; dau. of . . .

The Bauern Freund and Pennsburg Democrat reports that Sarah, wife of Jesse Willauer, nee Heist, of Pennsburg, died Jan. 15, 1865, "An den Folgen erhaltener Verletzungen" (as the result of an injury). Buried Jan. 19, at St. Paul's by Rev. Fr. Waage at the House, Rev. A. L. Dechant at church.

Jesse was baptized and married at Tohickon. He and Sara are buried in St. Paul's cemetery (six-cornered church near Red Hill). Three of their children who died young are buried near them.

In connection with the organization of the Greenlane and Goshenhoppen Turnpike Company, an account of which was published in the Bauern Freund and Pennsburg Democrat, translated and republished in "Town and Country", there is this sentence:

"Thereupon the stockholders gathered at the public house of Jesse Willauer (now Henry Heevner's) in Hillegassville, on Thursday, April 24, 1851, and organized the company through the election of officers and the adoption of the necessary by-laws and regulations."

Also in the same issue of the above newspaper is an account of the founding of the Pennsburg Lodge of Odd Fellows. Jesse Willauer is listed as Treasurer of Lodge No. 449, Independent Order of Odd Fellows. He was also a member of Knights of Pythia.

In April 1857, Jesse Willauer, yeoman of Upper Hanover, purchased the "Tavern known as the Greenlane Hotel" for $5800. He was successively a farmer, innkeeper and drover.

According to Norristown Court Records, Jesse was appointed guardian for Oliver Willauer, Percival Willauer, and Sara A. Willauer. This would seem to indicate a son Oliver and a daughter Sara, of whom I have no record.

Children:

1. Hanna Lucinda Willauer, b. Jan. 6, 1849; d. June 5, 1849; Aged 4m. 29d.
2. Percival Willauer, b. . . . 1850; Married Carrie Gerhart.
3. Emmaline Willauer, b. Nov. 30, 1853; d. May 25, 1857; Aged: 3y. 5m. 23d.
4. Walles Willauer, b. July 29, 1856; d. May 22, 1857; Aged: 9m. 23d.
5. Anne Willauer, b. . . . 1859; d. . . . 1905; Aged: 46y. Buried in Northwood Cemetery, Phila.

The Pennsburg Democrat, among its death notices, reports: Walles Willauer, son of Jesse and Sara, of Pennsburg, died May 22. 1857, of "Brustfieber and Hirnent Zudung" (Pneumonia and inflamation of the brain). Also Emmaline Willauer, daughter of Jesse and Sara, died on May 23, 1857, of "Scharlachfieber und Nervenschwäche." Both children were buried on May 24, 1857, at St. Paul's. Rev. Waage.

In a deed, in the Schwenkfelder Library, Jesse Willauer, drover, and his wife, Lydia, on April 1, 1872, transferred 146 acres and 56/100 perches to Tobias Freed, of Pennsburg, a shoemaker, which he had purchased in April 1865.

JOHN D. WILLAUER[4], (Peter[3], John[2], Christian[1]), b. August 18, 1801; d. . . .; Aged: . . .; son of Peter Willauer.

Married Elizabeth Shingle, on Jan. 20, 1822; b. Feb. 25, 1799; d. Feb. 26, 1879; Aged: 80y. 1d. dau. of . . .

I have no record where they are buried, but believe they lived in Chester County.

I have gone on the assumption that this John must be a son of Peter, who was born June 21, 1782, baptized at Falknerr Swamp Reformed Church; that Peter was a son of John and Elizabeth, and a grandson of the immigrant Christian. John D. had brothers: Peter (1807-1884) and Jacob (1805-1854).

The list of nine children, with one exception, is as given to me by the late Mrs. Edison Ash, of Phoenixville, Pa. The exception is in parenthesis and an explanation is given below.

Children:

1. Daniel Willauer, b. Dec. 19, 1822; d. Jan. 3, 1823; Aged: 1m. 6d.
2. Catherine Willauer, b. Jan. 18, 1824; d. Feb. 17, 1847; Aged: 23y. 29d. Married . . . Train.
3. Anne Willauer, b. May 4, 1826; married . . .
4. Jacob Willauer, b. Sept. 15, 1828; married Eliza Ann Fisher.

5. (Henry Shingle Willauer, b. Jan. 8, 1832;)
   Henry G. W. Willauer, b. Jan. 31, 1835; married Harriet Johns, of Lionville, Chester Co.
6. Susanna Willauer, b. Sept. 23, 1836; married Solomon Lupold, b. . . .; d. . . .; buried . . . No issue.
7. Margaret Ann Willauer, b. Nov. 12, 1838; married John Ludwig.
8. John J. Willauer, b. Nov. 31, 1840; d. . . .; Not married. Taught school.
9. William Harrison Willauer, b. Feb. 3, 1842; d. Feb. 13, 1843; Aged: 1y. 10d.

In support of including Henry Shingle Willauer I have the statement of Esther Willauer, Pottstown, that her father Henry Shingle Willauer (1832-1902) was a brother to Jacob, (1828-1916) who was a grandfather to Mrs. Edison Ash Mrs. Ash, in supplying me with family data, omitted the name of Henry Shingle Wallauer, but gave me Henry G. W. Willauer, b. Jan. 31, 1835. The differences in the name and dates of birth are puzzling. Pertinent facts to clear up the matter may come to light later.

JACOB WILLAUER[4], (Peter[3], John[2], Christian[1]), b. Jan. 2, 1805; d. July 5, 1856; Aged 51y. 6m. 3d.; son of Peter and . . . Willauer.

Married Anna (Perhaps it was Mary Anna . . .); b. . . . 1800; d. Oct. 16, 1887; Aged: 87y. Dau. of . . .

Jacob met death very suddenly and unexpectedly. On a Thursday morning, July 5, 1856, he was engaged in driving spikes in the cribbing along the Schuylkill Canal, necessary to the repair of a break in the Canal. Suddenly a large bank of dirt fell upon him, forcing him tightly against the cribbing, which was brest high. A portion of the ground bent his head over the top, breaking his neck and causing instant death.

Both are buried in Shenkel's Cemetery, Chester Co., Pa.

Children:

1. Cyrus Willauer, b. Nov. 11, 1832; married Elizabeth Porter.
2. Emma Willauer, b. . . .; Married John Porter
3. Harrison Willauer; b. Nov. 30, 1842; d. Jan. 22, 1867; Aged: 24y. 11m. 22d. Not married; buried in Shenkel's Cemetery.
4. Katherine (Kate) Willauer, b. . . . Married Augustus Worley.
5. Jacob Willauer, b. Jan. 1, 1845; married Elizabeth C. Jones.
6. Hannah Willauer, b. . . . 1848; married Samuel B. Smale (1833-1921).
7. Susan Willauer, b. . . . 1848; married Allen B. Rinehart.

(If the last two were twins, I have not ascertained that fact.)

PETER WILLAUER[4], (Peter[3], John[2], Christian[1]), b. Nov. 12, 1807; d. Sept. 7, 1884; Aged: 76y. 9m. 25d.; son of Peter and . . . Willauer.

Married (1) Margaret Weal, b. Aug. 3, 1808; d. . . . daughter of . . . (2) Mary Moser, b. . . . d. Aug. 6. 1896; Aged: about 86.

The father of this Peter was also a Peter Willauer, who was born in Pennsylvania and followed various pursuits. He died at an advanced age, leaving a large family.

Peter lived in Union twp., Berks County, until about 1843, when he moved to Chester County. He was a member of the German Reformed Church.

Peter was Supervisor of Roads of North Carpenter* Township in Chester County for 28 years. He also had a small farm. He had one son from his second wife, who died at the age of one year. Peter is buried in Shenkel's Cemetery, Chester County. There are two small tombstones beside the father's tombstone. One has the initials A. W.; the other is that of a daughter, but the inscription is illegible.

He is reported to have had 13 children, 7 sons and 6 daughters from his first wife; my records show 14, as follows:

Children:

1. Lafayette W. Willauer, b. May 9, 1829; married Rebecca Ramsey.
2. Samuel W. Willauer, b. Sept. 17, 1830; married Anna M. Stratton.

6. Alexander Willauer, b. Nov. 8, 1835; married . . .
7. Sara Ann Willauer, b. July 4, 1837; married Harvey B. Missimer, on Aug. 23, 1850, by Rev. F. Miller; Both from Pottstown.
8. William W. Willauer, b. Dec. 31, 1839; married Emma Rotz.
9. Levi W. Willauer, b. June 27, 1841; d. Aug. . . . 1857.
10. Mary Ann Willauer, b. Oct. 18, 1843; married Ferdinand H. Truitt.
11. Margaret Willauer, b. Jan. 13, 1845; d. Mar. 13, 1863; Aged: 18y. 2m. Buried at Shenkels Cemetery.
12. Peter W. Willauer, b. Sept. 15, 1846; married Margaret F. Crawford.
13. Lewis Willauer, b. March 27, 1848; married . . .
14. Emma Willauer, b. March 14, 1853; married . . .

John Swinehart is reported to have married one of the daughters above.

*This information is from a biographical sketch of William W. Willauer, in "Montgomery County" Vol. 1, p. 384, by Roberts. I am assuming that "Carpenter" is a misprint, since there is no Carpenter township in Chester County, and that it should be North Coventry.

A newspaper clipping dated August 18, 1857, gives the following description of how Levi met his death.

"DROWNED. A boy named Levi Willauer, son of Peter Willauer, of North Coventry, aged about 16 years, was drowned in the Schuylkill Canal, about one mile below Springville, on Saturday morning last, about four o'clock. He was driving a boat horse and it is supposed fell asleep and was knocked off the horse which he was riding, by striking against a bridge. He was heard to fall, and then cry out, by persons on board the boat, but it being dark, before he could be rescued, life was extinct."

Peter's children, of which he had a large number, gave him a surprise party on his 73rd birthday, Nov. 12, 1880. They brought with them a large supply of clothing, provisions, groceries, etc. The day previous he had been very sick, but was better on that day and ready to receive his relatives and friends.

. . . .Married George Washington West, of Tennessee, b. . . .; d. . . .; son of . . .

It is probable that Mary met George Washington West on a visit to her uncle, Jonathan, in Tennessee.

They went down to Texas in a covered wagon, taking with them stores, cattle, etc., and took up land, which they bought from the Government at $1.00 per acre. Major Seneca Willauer, a brother to Mary, rode with them on horseback to help them on their trip. This was before his marriage and the Civil War period.

2. Josephine Willauer, b. Oct. 2, 1880; married Willard C. Jackson.
3. Arthur Ebbs Willauer, b. May 1, 1876; married Katherine Whiting.

Maj. Seneca G. Willauer was mustered into service August 26, 1862; wounded at Fredericksburg, Va., Dec. 13, 1862; promoted from 1st Lt. Co. C March 1st, 1863; transferred as 1st Lieut. to 24th Reg. Vet. Res. Corps. Feb. 5, 1864; promoted to Capt. 11th Reg. Dec. 3, 1864; Brev. Maj. March 13, 1865; discharged Oct. 30, 1867.

After his discharge from military service, he engaged in the following activities.

The business of loaning money and conveyancing.

In 1878 he was Chief Burgess of West Chester. The question of what to do about Marshall Square came up before the borough Fathers, for a decision whether to take it under its wings or let it go. As the borough Fathers could not agree, Burgess Willauer cast the deciding vote in favor maintaining Marshall Square as a public park.

Major Willauer was the owner of real estate in West Caln township on which was a kaolin mine. About 1878 Major Willauer organized a company to mine kaolin near Cedar Knoll Station, north of Coatesville, Pa. The clay vein here was worked to a depth of 100 feet when operations became too expensive for further activity. Willauer subsequently failed and his property was sold by his assignees for the benefit of creditors.

After the above episode he engaged in cattle raising in Texas in 1883, but later returned again to West Chester.

In 1898 he was elected Acting Inspector of the Soldier's Orphans' Commission of Pennsylvania at a salary of $1800 per annum.

On Nov. 9th, 1896, he was one of the aides in the parade on Saturday night in West Chester, when he rode in a saddle which he used during the Rebellion, and on which he made many miles while in pursuit of President Lincoln's assassin. At that time the Major was stationed at Leonardstown, Md., with six companies in charge, and he held a commission as Lieutenant Colonel.

In April, 1881, Major General St. Clair Mulholland, of Philadelphia, contributed a very interesting article to the Philadelphia Sunday Times, describing the terrible battle at Fredericksburg, Va., on December 13, 1862, in which he alludes to the bravery and fortitude of Major Willauer. He writes:

"In this trying moment the guides are ordered out and the alignment made as perfect as on dress parade. The destruction of human beings is done with order and system, yet it is terrible enough; the very absence of confusion and excitement but adds to the intensity of the horror. As for the screams and shrieks, I have never heard anything of that kind either on the field or in the hospital. It may be that the soldiers of other nations indulge in cries and yells; our men took their punishment without a complaint or a murmur. Just before morning from this spot, one of my young officers, a brave boy from Chester County, Penna., Lieutenant Seneca G. Willauer, was badly torn by a shell, which stripped the flesh from his thigh and left the bone for four or five inches white and bare. He came to me, and holding up the bleeding limb for inspection, said, with the most gentle manner and placid voice: 'Colonel, do you think that I should go on with my company or go to the hospital?' No doubt had I told him to go on he would have done so. Then the advance is sounded. The orders of the regimental commanders ring out clear on the cold December air 'Right shoulder, shift arms,' 'battalion forward, guide centre, march!'

The long line of bayonets glitter in the bright sunlight. We have no friendly fog, as Meade had, to hide us from our foes, and as we advance up the slope we come in full view of The Army of Northern Virginia. All their batteries open upon us. We can trace their line by the fringe of blue smoke that quickly appears along the base of the hills and we see we are marching into an arc of fire. And what a reception awaits us! Fire in our front, from our right and our left. Shells come at us direct and oblique and drop down from above; shells enfilade our lines, burst among us in front, in rear, above and behind us. Shells everywhere; a torrent of shells; a blizzard of shot, shell and fire. The gaps made in the ranks are quickly closed. The colors kiss the ground, but are often quickly snatched from dead hands and held aloft again by others who soon in their turn bite the dust. The regimental commanders march out far in advance of their commands, and they, too, fall rapidly, but others run to take their places. Still in good order we push forward until five hundred yards of the long half mile lay between us and Marye's Heights is passed, then the sharp whiz of the minnie joins the loud scream of the oblong bolts."

In this Battle of Fredericksburg, Samuel J. Willauer, a younger brother of Major Seneca Willauer, was mortally wounded. Franklin Willauer, from Northampton county, son of Tobias Willauer, was killed. His brother, John Daniel, was a member of the same company and regiment, but survived the engagement.

JESSE WILLAUER[5], (John[4], Peter[3], John Adam[2], Christian[1]) b. Jan. 13, 1829; in Washington township, Berks Co., Pa., d. May 12, 1911; aged: 82y. 3m. 29d.; son of John and Barbara (Longacre) Willauer.

Both were of Frederick township at the time of marriage and both are buried in Schwenksville cemetery.

From Bean's History of Montgomery County, p.845-6, we find among the men who volunteered in the "War of the Rebellion", 1861-1865, from Frederick Township, the name of Jesse Willauer. From other sources we learn he served three years in the Third Regiment, Penna. Infantry, in Company A. He figured in several battles and suffered a severe wound in the Battle of Bull Run, when a piece of shell struck him in the leg.

Jesse Willauer made some effort to trace his family history. Among his possessions was a letter addressed to him by Solomon K. Grimley, a Notary Public from Schwenksville, this letter states that Casper Willauer arrived in Philadelphia, on October 17, 1732, with wife and child, in the Ship Pink John and William. This is the only source which refers to a child on arrival. While this letter lends credence to the belief that Casper Willauer was the same person as the Christian Willauer of the Great Swamp Reformed congregation, I am not fully convinced.

1. John M. Willauer, b. Mar. 27, 1852; mar. Annie Hallman.

On her tombstone there is inscribed:

The following incident may add interest to our story, reported Sept. 12, 1879, in the Schwenksville Item:

"Mrs. Edward Willauer, near this place, one day recently had finished boiling applebutter and was carrying it away, when the bottom of one of the pots fell out and the hot applebutter splashed all over one foot, burning it so severely that medical aid became necessary. SEVENTH GENERATION

WHITING WILLAUER[7], (Arthur[6], Seneca[5], Samuel[4], Christian[3], John Adam[2], Christian[1]), b. Nov. 30, 1906; in New York City; son of Arthur Ebbs and Katherine (Whiting) Willauer.

Married Louise Knapp Russell, of Brookline, Mass., on June 31, 1930; b. Dec. 4, 1908; dau. of Benjamin Franklin Winslow Russell, of Brookline, Mass., a Boston Architect and descendant of an old Nantucket whaling family. Her maternal grandfather was George O. 3. Thomas J. Willauer, b. . . . 1941; deceased at the age of 12 in an accident during the summer of 1953.

Whiting Willauer received his education in Stone School at Cornwall-on-the-Hudson, New York; Exeter Academy; and Princeton University from which he graduated in June 1928, with honors in English Literature. He was a member of the Varsity Football Team for two years; Varsity La-Crosse Team three years, Captain in senior year.

From 1928 to 1931 he attended Harvard Law School, from which he graduated in the top part of his class in 1931.

He practiced law in Boston 1931-1938. Then with a leave of absence from his firm he carried out special assignments for the United States Government, as follows:

1. Special Attorney U. S. Civil Aeronautics Administration.

2. Attorney for Criminal Division, U. S. Department of Justice and Special Assistant to U. S. Attorney General, directly in charge of all cases involving corruption of the judiciary, political corruption and certain phases of Department's anti-subversion activities, particularly Nazis and Communists. Handled a number of matters before the United States Grand Jurys, including the First Grand Jury convened in the United States directed against Nazi subversion.

3. In December 1940, assigned by the Department of Justice to Federal Power Commission as Special Counsel in preparation of the Congressional presentation of the St. Lawrence Seaway project.

4. 1941-1944,—assistant to the President and later Executive Secretary of China Defense Supplies, Inc. This organization was headed by the then Foreign Minister and later Premier of China, Dr. T. V. Soong, and was used for the procurement of war materiel for China in support of its war against the Japanese. Such items as the supply of Flying Tigers came within the purview of the CDS. Willauer joined in the group at the suggestion of high officials of the U. S. Government to assist the Chinese in bettering their liaison activities with the U. S. Government.

5. October, 1942. Commenced a series of approximately twelve wartime trips to China, of varying lengths. Directly in charge on behalf of the Chinese Government of certain phases of the development of the aerial supply route across "The Hump" and internal transportation within China proper. Commended for this work by General Chennault, Commander of the 14th Air Force.

6. In May 1944, returned to service with the United States Government as Director of the Far East and Special Territories Branch of the United States Foreign Economic Administration. Besides the Far East countries such as China under the jurisdiction of this branch, the following miscellaneous countries throughout the world were included: Afghanistan, Liberia, Iceland and Greenland.

7. October 1945. Resigned from U. S. Government and entered into business association with Major General C. L. Chennault and Rio Cathay, S. A., Panamanian group created to participate among other things in postwar economic development of China.

8. In December 1945 he arrived in China to commence business activities. On October 26, 1946, he was awarded franchise with General Chennault for operation of Civil Air Transport Airline under the name of CINRRA Air Transport (later Civil Air-Transport). The aviation activities of this unique airline have been the subject of considerable treatment in the press and magazines over the years, notably a story in Collier's Magazine (approx. Aug. 1950), Esso's Air World Sept.-Oct. issue 1950, and Saturday Evening Post of Jan. 14, 1950. The airline has been called "the most shot at airline in the world." After its initial phases as a civilian instrument for reconstruction of postwar China, it was actively engaged on the nationalist side virtually as a combat-cargo outfit in support of the Chinese nationalist armies against the Chinese Communists. It has been credited with delaying the Red takeover of many important parts of China due to its activities in carrying or dropping supplies. With the Communist takeover in 1949 of all of the mainand of China, the airline eventually re-established itself on the Island of Formosa and currently operates along the chain of islands extending from Korea through Japan, Formosa and Hong Kong to Manila and Bangkok. Its services were used extensively by the U. S. Air Force during the Korean war and it currently is one of the major air operators in the Far East with 35 airplanes and a complete maintenance setup.

9. November 1949. Besides Civil Air Transport, two other airlines operated on the Chinese mainland until after the Red takeover at which time they retreated to Hong Kong. These were the China National Aviation Corporation, 80% owned by the Chinese Government and 20% by Pan American Airways, and Central Air Transport Company, wholly owned by the Chinese Government. Due to Communist corruption of the Chinese top staff of these companies there was an attempt to turn over these companies and their assets to the Communist cause. This was partially successful with approximately 11 airplanes delivered to the Reds. However, 70 remained in Hong Kong when Chennault and Willauer intervened in the situation. At the request of the Chinese Government Chennault and Willauer purchased in December 1949, all the assets of these airlines. There ensued a famous law case in the British Courts as to the validity of this purchase which ultimately resulted in the summer of 1952, in an award in favor of Chennault and Willauer by the British Privy Council. At the trial there was evidence that the Red Chinese had intended to use these airlines for a parachute invasion of Formosa which would probably have resulted in the downfall of that island at that time in view of its then completely disorganized military status. July 1950 CAT was re-organized with new financial backers and incorporated in Delaware as CAT, Inc. Willauer was the first president of the airline and General Chennault was Chairman of the Board. Later Willauer became Vice Chairman and finally resigned in order to take on the post of Ambassador to Honduras.

10. February 8, 1954. Appointed and confirmed as Ambassador to Honduras; and took charge of the Embassy on March 1st. During tenure as Ambassadore there have been sweeping changes and events which occurred in this Central American political picture; for instance: the Honduran based revolution to evict the Communist Government in Guatemala from that country, the Fruit Company strikes on the north coast which were Communist inspired, which occurred in May, 1954; a major flood in the Sula Valley in October, 1954; and the presidential elections with the subsequent semi-dictatorship of Chief of State Lozano in the early winter of 1954. The work of the Embassy and the leadership of Willauer have been commended by the Secretary of State.

There have been other Willauer immigrants at later periods. One of these was VIRGIL JOSEPH WILLAUER, b. May 17, 1859; d. . . .; He married Beatrice Carney.

Virgil came from Germany about 1870, from Munderkinger, near Ulm, in Wuerttemberg. He lived in Philadelphia, conducted successfully a grocery store at 1335 So. 21st Street in Philadelphia.

He had a brother Herman who remained in Germany. Virgil made many trips to Germany to visit his relatives.

They had one daughter, Irene, b. Oct. 3, 1895. She was educated in Germany, is a talented musician, speaks several languages, and taught for a while in Darlington Seminary in West Chester. She married Joseph Avila, a Venezuelan, who died Dec. 15, 1959.

There was also a Karl Willauer, who came from Germany about 1870, and is reported to have set out for California to mine gold. Nothing was ever heard from him.

JOHN WILLAUER
and descendants

The John Willauer, who married Polly Gery, was the great grandfather of the author. A most diligent search so far has failed to disclose the names of his parents, date of birth, date of death, place of burial, or church affiliation. The first information concerning them was found in the volume of Schwenkfelder Families, which stated that Polly Gery married . . . Willauer, and that they had three children,—Charles, John and Fayette. It further stated that Fayette married . . . Taylor. This is a typographical error, as Court Records prove she married Saylor. It is probable that both John Willauer and Polly Gery were born about 1790, and that both died some time prior to the period of the American Civil War. The Gery family is from the northern section of Montgomery county. Presumably John Willauer came from that region too.

Both sons, Charles and John married and lived in Montgomery county in the vicinity between Schwenksville and Norristown.

A brother of Polly, Charles Gery, who lived in Pennsburg, died in 1867, unmarried and intestate. Court records of his estate show that his sister Mary, meaning Polly, had predeceased him, and so had her son Charles who died December 4, 1862.

The tax records of Montgomery county show that John and Charles were taxed as single men in Lower Salford township for the years 1837, 1838, and 1840, occupation "Taylor". Charles married in 1842, or early 1843, and for the years 1843, 1844, 1845, he paid an occupation tax as well as a tax on 2 horses and two to five cows, but in 1846 he was taxed for 85A and dwelling, 2 horses and 4 cattle.

John (the son) was taxed as a single man in Perkiomen township in 1841 and 1842. For the years 1847, 1848 and 1849, we find John Willauer, Tailor, res. Hope above Otter, Kensington, listed in the Philadelphia Directory.

In Keely's Cemetery, near Schwenksville, we find a tombstone with the following inscription: Jonas Willauer, born August 21, 1817; died August 21, 1862; aged: 45y. Jonas was taxed in 1841 as a single man in Perkiomen township; but his name was crossed out in 1842. He was taxed as a single man in Lower Salford township for 1842, 1843, 1844. In 1845 his name was crossed out. In 1851 Jonas Willauer (presumably the same person) is listed in the Philadelphia Directory as a tailor, res. Rose Street ab. William.

In the year 1841, Charles, John and Jonas were taxed in Perkiomen township. Prior to that time, Charles and John were taxed in Lower Salford township. In later years we find John and Jonas in Philadelphia as tailors. This leads to a strong presumption that Jonas was a brother to John and Charles, all three sons of John and Polly (Gery) Willauer, and that John and Polly lived in Perkiomen and Lower Salford townships of Montgomery county.

The fact that the sons were tailors suggests the thought that the father John might have been a tailor. However, the widow of one of the grandsons, states that she understood that this John was a miller.

There is extant a copy of a rental agreement for the year April 1, 1842, to April 1, 1843, between Abraham Everhart, a farmer of Skippack township and John Willauer, a tailor. This no doubt refers to John G. Willauer, a son of John and Polly.

Now Abraham Everhart, Jr., was a miller. This suggests the query: Did John, Sr., work as a miller for Abraham Everhart, Jr., and through his acquaintenance with the Everhart family arrange for renting living quarters for his son John. Some of the early generations of the Willauer family married into the Everhart family.

There is no doubt in the author's mind that this John Willauer is a descendend of the immigrant Christian. There are certain very marked physical characteristics between present day descendends of this family and others traced directly to Christian Willauer. Evidence to prove this John in direct line of descend has not yet been found.

JOHN WILLAUER, b. about 1790; son of . . .

Married Polly (Mary) Gery, about 1810; b. . . .; d. . . . dau. of John and Susanna (Wiegner) Gery.

On her father's side, Polly was a granddaughter of Jacob Gery, a redemptioner, who came from Switzerland, and was hired by Valentine Griesemer, a farmer near Treichlersville. The Gerys were Reformed church members. On her mother's side, Polly was a great granddaughter of George Wiegner, one of the Schwenkfelder immigrants.

At the age of six his father died and at the age of eight his mother died, and he became an orphan. He was raised by a Landis family, near Lederachville, who were member of the Salford Mennonite Congregation.
